CRITIC'S CHOICE

Britain's Got Talent Final (STV, 7.30pm-10.10pm)

During the spring, there was a possibility that the 2020 run of BGT would have to be cancelled. However, tonight, Ant and Dec host the 2020 final, as 10 acts battle it out to be crowned champion and win the life-changing £250,000 prize plus a coveted role on

The Royal Variety show. So far, we know that comedian Steve Royle, dancers Aaron and Jasmine, magician Magical Bones and comedic pianist Jon Courtenay are all in the final having been sent through by judges Amanda, Alesha, David and Ashley. They will be joined in line-up by the acts who received the most public votes during each of the semis.

Guy Martin's World Speed Records (Channel 4, 7pm-8pm)

Although he often looks to the past for inspiration for his challenges, Guy Martin is not one for reminiscing about his own achievements. Now, with a bit of time on his hands during lockdown, Guy has decided to sit in his shed with a cuppa and look back at some of his endeavours.

Agatha Christie: 100 Years of Poirot & Miss Marple (Channel 5, 8.30pm-10pm)

In October 1920, Agatha Christie's first novel, The Mysterious Affair at Styles, was published in America. This documentary celebrates the anniversary by exploring Christie's life and 10 of her most important books, including Death on the Nile.

Full Circle with Michael Palin (BBC4, 8pm-9pm)

The globetrotting presenter arrives in Japan, where he meets a dedicated Monty Python fan, receives a beating in a Zen monastery, before visiting Nagasaki – where the second atom bomb was dropped in 1945. He then heads to the South Korean capital Seoul.

Father Ted (More4, 11.05pm-12.15am)

Double bill. Bishop Brennan orders Ted to campaign against a controversial film – which subsequently becomes the biggest box-office hit in the island's history. An attractive novelist comes to stay on Craggy Island – and it is not long before Ted mistakenly believes she has fallen for him. With Gemma Craven.
